

CELEBRATING FIVE YEARS OF GLOBAL IMPACT

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

When Jesus said, "Go and make disciples of all nations" (Mt. 28:19), He was talking to eleven Jews who other than an internship with Jesus and the promised power of the Holy Spirit, didn't seem to have anything close to the minimum qualifications to get the job done. And yet they started a tidal wave of people following Jesus that continues to this day.

How did that happen? Seth Godin famously said, "Ideas that spread win." That is because big stuff doesn't happen in isolation. What changes the world (for good or for evil) is what the committed few effectively get the masses to do through spreading change in their circles of influence.

Long before Seth Godin was on the scene, Jesus established this strategy through the all-important disciple-making requirement, "teach them to obey everything I commanded you" (Mt. 28:20). As new disciples obey by teaching their disciples to do the same, the tidal wave takes off!

After 23 years as a division of another ministry, in 2018 New Generations became an independent organization. In these past 5 years, God has raised up 858,158 new disciples (an average of 171,632 per year). This incredible harvest is a testimony to the power of ordinary people simply doing what Jesus said - multiplying disciples in their natural networks and getting them to repeat the process.

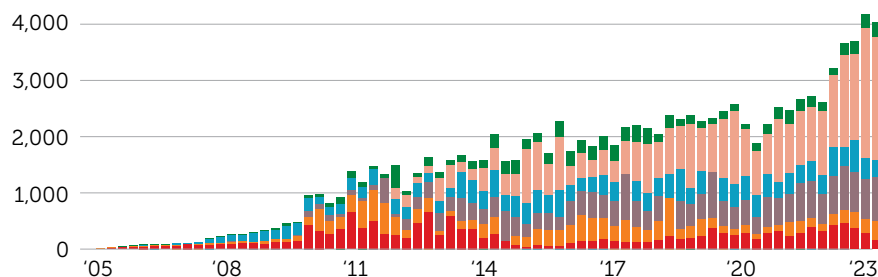

To God be the glory!

STORIES OF TRANSFORMATION: JOYO'S STORY

A TESTIMONY FROM SOUTHEAST ASIA

We've been partnering with a very fruitful couple who have been living among an unreached people group for 18-years. In the past, they used a different ministry model. In recent years, they found a Person of Peace (PoP) we'll call "Joyo." But at first, they didn't realize that was his identity.

They thought Joyo was an evangelist. So, they trained him to "share the Gospel story," just like they had been doing. Since he was an insider, wealthy, and working for the government, he could do and say about anything he wanted.

Once he got hold of the good news, Joyo started spreading it. Over a short time, he reached three of his best friends. With the help of our partner, he formed a discipleship group. Then the group realized they need to bring this Good News to the rest of their province. So, they started going out with their own money on mission trips with a goal of planting a church in every county. They have been successful... but they did not understand DMM. They were only passing on the Gospel message and only reaching men, since they were all men themselves.

When our partners started learning DMM principles, they changed their approach. They encouraged all their churches and groups to go back to the beginning and use the Discovery Bible Study approach in their Creation to Christ studies.

Once exposed to Genesis, the fledgling churches and groups quickly realized their mistake in neglecting their wives and families. Now each man has been challenged to start his own Discovery Group among his family, starting with Genesis in 2023.

The result? The wives are thrilled. Already one wife and adult son have professed faith in Jesus (despite still being in Genesis) and other groups are forming. Because of the "live out loud" principle of DMM, these men are transitioning from being like a secretive men's Bible groups to openly sharing. Now they bring the Good News to their families through the discovery process.

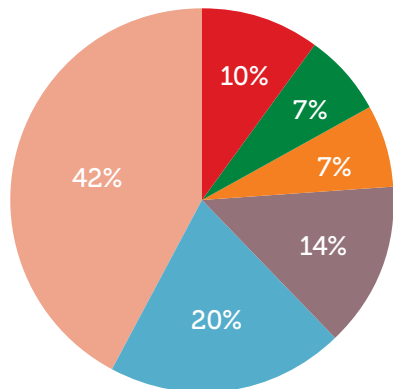

Pray that each man in the nearly 50 groups will take up the challenge. Pray that we will see whole families coming to the Kingdom and that replication truly happens in 2023 in this very needy Muslim area.
